

GREETINGS FROM RESONAARI

Music school's autumn lessons are rllong along nicely, we even got a brief glimpse snow herein Kulosaari. It feels great to be back in the class rooms, especially after some air conditioning renovations were made in Resonaari's house during summer. We have also updated class rooms for the ever growing need of functioning band practice spaces. This autumn we have over 300 students at Resonaari music school.

New curriculum has been published

Resonaari music school follows the requirements of the Finnish National Curriculum for arts education. Teaching progresses individually for each student. Resonaari's new curriculum is published in Finnish at <https://eperusteet.opintopolku.fi/#/fi/ops/10436825/tpo/tiedot> Please, contact us if you wish to ask questions about the curriculum.
